Collection Development Policy

PURPOSE

The Collection Development Policy of the White House Library (WHL):

- Informs the public of the principles guiding our selection of library materials
- Establishes priorities for the allocation of resources
- Guides library staff in the selection and continual evaluation of the collection based on but not limited to community needs, interest, space, and budget restraints

This policy is reviewed annually by the WHL board to ensure it continuously meets the growing needs of the community, changing interests, and current trends.

LIBRARY MISSION

Be an essential community hub that provides tools, resources, and assistance.

The Library's Selected Roles:

- Popular Materials Center
- Preschooler's Door to Learning
- Independent Learning Center

COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT RESPONSIBILITY

Within the context of policies adopted by the WHL Board of Trustees, the Library Director holds ultimate responsibility for selection and management of the collection. The White House Library Director will review all items before purchase or addition to the library collection, with a list of newly added items being shared to the WHL board. The Library Director may delegate collection development responsibilities to library staff as necessary.

SELECTION AND EVALUATION CRITERIA

Selection Criteria

Priority is given to materials that best support WHL's mission and selected roles of Popular Materials Center, Preschooler's Door to Learning, and Independent Learning Center. Library staff utilizes professional judgment and expertise when making selection and collection management decisions. Books and material that contain sexual themes or content are reviewed by WHL independently of age appropriateness and are cataloged accordingly even if it overrides publisher recommendations. Library staff will consider community interests, demand, strengths and weaknesses of the existing collection, physical space limitations, and available budget when making selection decisions. No funds received by the WHL will be used to purchase, nor will the library acquire material that is deemed illegal under current state or federal statutes. The following criteria are used to evaluate items for inclusion in the WHL collection:

- Content
 - Accuracy
 - Authoritativeness
 - Comprehensiveness
 - Enduring significance or interest

- Purpose
- Representation of diverse viewpoints
- Cost in relation to use and/or enhancement of the collection
- Current and anticipated appeal
- Format
- Professional reviews
- Relation to the existing collection
- Relation to other resources in the community
- Significance of the author/creator
- Suitability for intended audience
- Timeliness

Formats

WHL acquires materials in various formats including print, audiovisual, and digital. Currently, WHL acquires:

- Hardcover books
- Paperback books
- Large print books
- Magazines
- Newspapers
- Audiobook CDs
- DVDs
- Plush sets (a children's book and related stuffed animal)
- Board Games
- Puzzles
- Video Games
- Tech devices
- Cake pans
- STEAM Items
- Miscellaneous items e.g. knitting kits, etc.

WHL offers access to:

- Digital audiobooks
- Digital eBooks
- Electronic Resources (Tennessee Electronic Library)
- Universal Class
- Kanopy

The WHL collection does not include:

- Realia
- Textbooks
- Microform
- Computer software

Selection Aids

Sources for assisting library staff in the selection process include, but are not limited to:

- Patron requests and recommendations
- Professional and trade bibliographies such as:
 - New York Times Best Sellers
 - American Library Association Notable Books
 - Oprah's Book Club
- Published reviews from standard review sources such as:
 - Booklist
 - Horn Book
 - Kirkus
 - Library Journal
 - Publisher's Weekly
 - School Library Journal
 - VOYA
- Publisher/vendor catalogs

Gifts

WHL gladly accepts gifts of materials for the collection using the same selection criteria applied to purchase material. Decisions regarding the inclusion of gifts in the WHL collection are made by the Library Director and library staff, using the following guidelines:

- Not all gifts will be added to the WHL collection. Unused gifts will not be returned to donors.
- WHL retains unconditional ownership of the gift.
- Unused gifts may be given to the Friends of the White House Library for public sale, be donated to other organizations, or disposed of.
- WHL does not place a value on gifts, nor provide appraisals for income tax or any other purpose.

WHL is pleased to accept monetary gifts intended for the purchase of library materials. Using the aforementioned selection criteria the Library Director will choose specific titles to be purchased with a monetary gift. However, a donor may suggest their gift be used to enhance a specific area of the collection (best sellers, picture books, music, etc.).

Collection Evaluation and Maintenance

The WHL collection is evaluated on a regular basis to ensure that space limitations are minimized and that the collection remains current, balanced, attractive, and relevant. Through collection evaluation, items are selected for retention, replacement, or withdrawal. At the Library Director's discretion, items withdrawn from the collection will be donated to the Friends of the White House Library for public sale, or disposed of through appropriate means as determined by the Library. Library staff utilizes professional expertise and judgment in deciding which materials to retain, replace, repair, or withdraw. The Library utilizes the following guide for collection evaluation and maintenance:
